

JOIN EVOSEP AS A COMMERCIAL SPECIALIST

We are looking to extend our Odense office with a person who can support the commercial part of our operation and take part in shaping tomorrow's health care.

Who are we?

Evosep is only five years old as a company, but most of our employees have a long history within nanoLC and proteomics. Our expertise within the field made it possible for us to bring the Evosep One to market at HUPO 2017 in Dublin just one and a half years after Evosep was founded. Our mission at Evosep is to improve quality of life and patient care by radically innovating how protein based clinical diagnostics are performed. To do so, we engage in collaborations with world-leading scientists about developing new technologies and solutions to make sample separation 10 times faster and 100 times more robust than today's alternatives.

Responsibilities

- Order handling – we are shipping products all around the world and you will oversee all procedures and follow up on paperwork for international shipments.
- CRM management – support our global sales force with segmented and targeted information as contact point for our customer database.
- Digital Marketing – working with our website (Wordpress), web shop, newsletters (Mailchimp), campaigns and other digital activities.
- Reporting and inventory management
- Back office support

We are a small company, and you will be working close together with both our sales-, marketing- and production team to support several different tasks.

Who are you?

- You have a graduate degree (Cand. Merc or related)
- You just graduated or have a few years' experience with commercial support. (Commercial experience will be considered a plus.)
- You want to learn and are not afraid to dive into new tasks and get things done.
- You have excellent communication and people skills. This goes for both writing and presenting skills, in English and Danish, as well as listening and interaction skills in general.

What we offer

- A team of passionate colleagues who are all working for a cause. You will contribute to improve and develop quality of life and patient care and be a part of an innovative and collaborative culture in an ever-evolving industry.
- A work environment where freedom under responsibility is key. We expect you to be dedicated and deliver results and in return you will have flexibility to schedule your work and optimize your work-life balance.
- An encouraging and informal tone, both internally and when working with our users. You can go a long way with constructive communication.
- A small company with a global reach. You will have several colleagues working abroad and we prioritize a strong communication with our team across the world.

If you are interested in learning more or want to submit an application, please contact CEO Christian Ravnsborg at cr@evosep.com or phone +45 26 33 20 21.

What happens after I have submitted my application?

We are looking for someone who can join our team from 1st of January 2022. We will conduct interviews continuously and we will close the job advert as soon as we find the right candidate, so do not hesitate to submit your application!

If invited for an interview, you will join us for 3 one-on-one interviews at our HQ in Odense. We are looking forward to receiving your application.
